WHEREAS, The President's Commission on Mental Health has determined that the magnitude of mental illness as the United States' major health problem is greater than previously thought—one out of every six or seven Americans is suffering from some form of mental illness or emotional disturbance, and perhaps as many as half of all those who need help remain "unserved, underserved, or inappropriately served"; and,

WHEREAS, There is today a vastly greater chance for the mentally ill to recover through enlightened community mental health services than in years gone by, and the South Dakota Mental Health Association is working for just such services in our State; and,

WHEREAS, May has been known as MENTAL HEALTH MONTH throughout the United States for the past thirty years:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of May, 1980, as in South Dakota, and I sincerely urge all of our citizens to support the Mental Health Association of South Dakota in its public information and educational programs, its efforts to promote good mental health, and its role as an advocate for better mental health services to all South Dakotans.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty
